Form I-9

OMB No.1615-0047

Expires 07/31/2026

START HERE: Employers must ensure the form instructions are available to employees when completing this form. Employers are liable for failing to comply with the requirements for completing this form. See below and the Instructions.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION NOTICE: All employees can choose which acceptable documentation to present for Form I-9. Employers cannot ask employees for documentation to verify information in Section 1, or specify which acceptable documentation employees must present for Section 2 or Supplement B, Reverification and Rehire. Treating employees differently based on their citizenship, immigration status, or national origin may be illegal.

Section 1. Employee Information and Attestation: Employees must complete and sign Section 1 of Form I-9 no later than the first day of employment, but not before accepting a job offer.

Employee's Withholding Certificate

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.

Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

2024Step 1:
Enter
Personal
Information

(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
City or town, state, and ZIP code
(c) <input type="checkbox"/> Single or Married filing separately
<input type="checkbox"/> Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse
<input type="checkbox"/> Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2:
Multiple Jobs
or Spouse
Works

Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs.

Do only one of the following.

- (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or
- (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or
- (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3:
Claim
Dependent
and Other
Credits

If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly):

Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____

Multiply the number of other dependents by $500 $ _____

Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here

3 $Step 4
(optional):
Other
Adjustments

(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income

4(a) $

(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here

4(b) $

(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period . .

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2024 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2023 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2024. You had no federal income tax liability in 2023 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2023 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2024 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 15, 2025.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
3. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2024 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Employee's Withholding Exemption Certificate

Submit form IT 4 to your employer on or before the start date of employment so your employer will withhold and remit Ohio income tax from your compensation. If applicable, your employer will also withhold school district income tax. You must file an updated IT 4 when any of the information listed below changes (including your marital status or number of dependents). You should contact your employer for instructions on how to complete an updated IT 4. Your employer may require you to complete this form electronically.

Section I: Personal Information

5. Additional Ohio income tax withholding per pay period (optional)$

Section III: Withholding Waiver

I am not subject to Ohio or school district income tax withholding because (check all that apply):

- ☐ I am a full-year resident of Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Pennsylvania, or West Virginia.
- ☐ I am a resident military servicemember who is stationed outside Ohio on active duty military orders.
- ☐ I am a nonresident military servicemember who is stationed in Ohio due to military orders.
- ☐ I am a nonresident civilian spouse of a military servicemember and I am present in Ohio solely due to my spouse's military orders.
- ☐ I am exempt from Ohio withholding under R.C. 5747.06(A)(1) through (6).

IT 4 Instructions

Most individuals are subject to Ohio income tax on their wages, salaries, or other compensation. To ensure this tax is paid, employers maintaining an office or transacting business in Ohio must withhold Ohio income tax, and school district income tax if applicable, from each individual who is an employee.

Such employees who are subject to Ohio income tax (and school district income tax, if applicable) should complete sections I, II, and IV of the IT 4 to have their employer withhold the appropriate Ohio taxes from their compensation. If the employee does not complete the IT 4 and return it to his/her employer, the employer:

- Will withhold Ohio tax based on the employee claiming zero exemptions, and
- Will not withhold school district income tax, even if the employee lives in a taxing school district.

An individual may be subject to an interest penalty for underpayment of estimated taxes (on form IT/SD 2210) based on under-withholding.

Certain employees may be exempt from Ohio withholding because their income is not subject to Ohio tax. Such employees should complete sections I, III, and IV of the IT 4 only.

The IT 4 does not need to be filed with the Department of Taxation. Your employer must maintain a copy as part of its records.

R.C. 5747.06(A) and Ohio Adm.Code 5703-7-10.

Section I

Enter the four-digit school district number of your primary address. If you do not know your school district of residence or its school district number, use The Finder at tax.ohio.gov. You can also verify your school district by contacting your county auditor or county board of elections.

If you move during the tax year, complete an updated IT 4 immediately reflecting your new address and/ or school district of residence.

Section II

Line 1: If you can be claimed on someone else's Ohio income tax return as a dependent, then you are to enter "0" on this line. Everyone else may enter "1".

Line 2: If you are single, enter "0" on this line. If you are married and you and your spouse file separate Ohio Income tax returns as "Married filing Separately" then enter "0" on this line.

Line 3: You are allowed one exemption for each dependent. Your dependents for Ohio income tax purposes are the same as your dependents for federal income tax purposes. See R.C. 5747.01(O).

Line 5: If you expect to owe more Ohio income tax than the amount withheld from your compensation, you can request that your employer withhold an additional amount of Ohio income tax. This amount should be reported in whole dollars.

Note: If you do not request additional withholding from your compensation, you may need to make estimated income tax payments using form IT 1040ES or estimated school district income tax payments using the SD 100ES. Individuals who commonly owe more in Ohio income taxes than what is withheld from their compensation include:

- Spouses who file a joint Ohio income tax return and both report income, and
- Individuals who have multiple jobs, all of which are subject to Ohio withholding.

Section III

This section is for individuals whose income is deductible or excludable from Ohio income tax, and thus employer withholding is not required. Such employee should check the appropriate box to indicate which exemption applies to him/her. Checking the box will cause your employer to not withhold Ohio income tax and/or school district income tax. The exemptions include:

- Reciprocity Exemption: If you are a resident of Indiana, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Michigan or West Virginia and you work in Ohio, you do not owe Ohio income tax on your compensation. Instead, you should have your employer withhold income tax for your resident state. R.C. 5747.05(A)(2).
- Resident Military Servicemember Exemption: If you are an Ohio resident and a member of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard (or the reserve components of these branches of the military) or a member of the National Guard, you do not owe Ohio income tax or school district income tax on your active duty military pay and allowances received while stationed outside of Ohio.

This exemption does not apply to compensation for nonactive duty status or received while you are stationed in Ohio.

R.C. 5747.01(A)(21).

- Nonresident Military Servicemember Exemption: If you are a nonresident of Ohio and a member of the uniformed services (as defined in 10 U.S.C. §101), you do not owe Ohio income tax or school district income tax on your military pay and allowances.
- Nonresident Civilian Spouse of a Military Servicemember Exemption: If you are the civilian spouse of a military servicemember, your pay may be exempt from Ohio income tax and school district income tax if all of the following are true:
 - Your spouse is stationed in Ohio on military orders; and
 - You are present in Ohio solely to be with your spouse.

You must provide a copy of the employee's spousal military identification card issued to the employee by the Department of Defense when completing the IT 4.

Note: For more information on taxation of military servicemembers and their civilian spouses, see 50 U.S.C.A. 4001 and tax.ohio.gov/military.

- Statutory Withholding Exemptions: Compensation earned in any of the following circumstances is not subject to Ohio income tax or school district income tax withholding:

- Agricultural labor (as defined in 26 U.S.C. §3121(g));
- Domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority;
- Services performed by an employee who is regularly employed by an employer to perform such service if she or he earns less than $300 during a calendar quarter;

- Newspaper or shopping news delivery or distribution directly to a consumer, performed by an individual under the age of 18;
- Services performed for a foreign government or an international organization; and
- Services performed outside the employer's trade or business if paid in any medium other than cash.

*These exemptions are not common.

Note: While the employer is not required to withhold on these amounts, the income is still subject to Ohio income tax and school district income tax (if applicable). As such, you may need to make estimated income tax payments using form IT 1040ES and/or estimated school district income tax payments using form SD 100ES.

Self-Identification of Veteran Status

The information requested below may be used for affirmative action compliance and is strictly voluntary. Disclosure or refusal to provide the information will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information provided will only be used in a manner consistent with the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Act of 1974, as amended, and other applicable federal and/or state laws. The information you submit will be kept confidential, except that: (i) supervisors and managers may be informed regarding restrictions on the work or duties of special disabled veterans, and regarding necessary accommodations; (ii) first aid and safety personnel may be informed, when and to the extent appropriate, if you have a condition that might require emergency treatment; and (iii) government officials engaged in enforcing laws administered by OFCCP, or enforcing the Americans with Disabilities Act, may be informed.

- ☐ Veteran of the Vietnam Era: Defined as a person who: (a) served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, and was discharged or released therefrom with other than a dishonorable discharge, if any part of such active duty occurred in: (i) the Republic of Vietnam between February 28, 1961 and May 7, 1975, or (ii) between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975, in all other cases; OR (b) was discharged or released from active duty for a service-connected disability if any part of such active duty was performed during the times and places specified under (a).
- ☐ Recently Separated Veteran: Defined as any veteran during the one-year period beginning on the date of such veteran's discharge or release from active duty.
- ☐ Other protected veteran: Defined as a person who served on active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized under laws administered by the Department of Defense.
- ☐ Special Disabled Veteran: Defined as (a) a veteran who is entitled to compensation (or who, but for the receipt of military retired pay, would be entitled to compensation) under laws administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs for a disability rated at 30 percent or more, or related at 10 or 20 percent in the case of a veteran who has been determined by the Department of Veterans Affairs to have a serious employment handicap; or (b) a person who was discharged or released from active duty because of a service-connected disability.
- ☐ I am a protected veteran, but I choose not to self-identify the classifications to which I belong.
- ☐ I am NOT a protected veteran.

If you are a disabled veteran it would assist us if you tell us whether there are accommodations we could make that would enable you to perform the essential functions of the job. If you wish to request an accommodation, please contact your manager or the Human Resources office.

Protected veterans may have additional rights under USERRA- the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act. For more information, call the U.S. Department of Labor's Veterans Employment and Training Service (VETS), toll -free at 1-866-4-USA-DOL.

Musical Arts Association Anti-Harassment Policy

The Musical Arts Association (MAA), which operates The Cleveland Orchestra (the "Orchestra"), adheres to an Equal Employment Opportunity Policy which requires all employment decisions to be made without regard to sex, race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status or any other factor or characteristic protected by applicable federal, state or local law. This commitment to equal opportunity is consistent with the organization's Ethical Principles.

In implementing this Policy, MAA will not tolerate discrimination or harassment of any form directed toward its employees, customers, volunteers, advisors, independent contractors or persons providing services to or with MAA on the basis of sex, race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status or any other factor or characteristic protected by applicable federal, state or local law. Any conduct in violation of this policy will result in discipline, up to and including termination of either employment or the contractual or volunteer relationship with MAA.

MAA condemns and prohibits harassment of any employee, customer, volunteer or contractor performing services to or with MAA, whether or not it arises to the level of illegal harassment under federal, state or local law.

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, trustees, officers and volunteers throughout the organization and all individuals who may have contact with any Orchestra employees, contractors or volunteers. Persons who believe they have been discriminated or retaliated against in violation of this Policy should report their complaint in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Policy.

Sexual harassment and harassment based on sex, race, religion, color, national origin, gender, age, disability, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, veteran status or any other factor or characteristic protected by applicable federal, state or local law, is prohibited. Harassment is defined as verbal or physical conduct that belittles, shows hostility or hatred toward an individual because of his/her own sex, race, color, religion, gender, national origin, age, ancestry, sexual orientation, disability or veteran's status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state or local law, or that of his/her relatives, friends or associates, and that: (i) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; (ii) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or (iii) otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Harassment includes, but is not limited to:

- Verbal abuse, such as epithets, lewd talk, suggestive or offensive comments, jokes, slurs;
- Visual forms of harassment, such as offensive or derogatory posters, calendars, cartoons, drawings or other written materials;
- Electronic forms of harassment, such as derogatory or offensive emails, screen savers, text messages or social media postings; and
- Other threatening, intimidating or hostile acts.

Sexual harassment also includes unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct (including kidding, teasing, physical contact such as touching, patting, brushing against another's body in an inappropriate manner) of a sexual nature when:

- Submission is made explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment;
- Submission or rejection is used as a basis for employment decisions or other opportunities with MAA; or
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creates a hostile, intimidating, or offensive environment for employees, customers, volunteers or contractors.

Reporting Complaints

MAA expects that everyone will act in accordance with this Policy. However, if someone believes that he or she has been subjected to any form of discrimination and/or harassment, he or she should report such conduct as soon as possible. If feasible, the person should firmly and clearly tell the person engaging in the conduct that it is unwelcome and offensive and should stop at once.

MAA wants to be made aware of any and all complaints through whatever channel serves the complainant best as soon as possible after the conduct occurs. A complainant may report a complaint of any form of discrimination and/or harassment to his or her immediate supervisor, the Executive Director, the Chief Financial Officer, the Director of Human Resources or the Chair of the Board of Trustees. Any supervisor who becomes aware of an alleged violation under this policy must report it to the Executive Director or to the Chairs of the Audit and Nominating and Governance Committees of the Board of Trustees. A complainant is never required to report the complaint to the person engaging in the discriminatory conduct or harassment. Finally, the complainant may choose to make an anonymous complaint using MAA's confidential Employee Hotline.

MAA will conduct a prompt investigation of the discrimination and/or harassment claim and will endeavor to maintain confidentiality to the extent possible. The investigation will respect the rights of both the complaining party and the accused. In some cases, MAA may, in its discretion, designate a third party to conduct the investigation. A timely resolution of each complaint will be reached and, if the complainant has identified himself or herself, will be communicated to the complainant and the other parties involved. Appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination, will be promptly taken against anyone engaging in violation of this Policy, even in cases where applicable laws may not have been violated. If a violation is found, appropriate action will be taken to end the harassment, aid the victim, and prevent the recurrence of such conduct.

No Retaliation

Retaliation against anyone for filing in good faith a complaint or participating in an investigation is strictly prohibited. Any person who believes he or she is being retaliated against should report any retaliation to his or her immediate supervisor or to the Director of Human Resources.

Applicability to E-mail, Text Messages & Social Media

This Anti-Harassment Policy applies not only in the context of spoken and/or physical interactions, but also in the context of e-mails, text messages, and information posted, created or exchanged on social media, to the extent permitted by law.

"Social media" includes all means of communicating or posting information or content of any sort on the Internet, including to someone's own or someone else's weblog or blog, journal or diary, personal web site, social networking web site, web bulletin board or a chat room, whether or not associated or affiliated with MAA, as well as any other form of electronic communication including emails and text messages.

Nothing contained in this Policy restricts an employee's right to engage in protected concerted activity under the National Labor Relations Act or to otherwise exercise any rights under local, state or federal law.

I have read and agree that I will abide by the policies outlined above.
